For Representative.

We are authorized to announce DR. A. D. PARK as a candidate for Representative from this county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

We are authorized to announce GEO. M. MADDOX as a candidate for Representative from Ohio county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The second session of the Fifty-seventh Congress convened at Washington Monday.

Will the Hartford Herald kindly oblige us in its next issue with a plain, unvarnished definition of a trust?

A beautiful remembrance of the passing of sectional hate, will be the portraits of Lincoln and Lee hanging side by side in a Mississippi Hall of Fame.

The Herald says one candidate in a State convention—presumably Senator Goebel—spent $16,000 in a State convention. Will it please state what he bought with the money?

The Fiscal Court will meet the first Monday in January. If there is anybody in Ohio county who feels an interest in the improvement of our public roads, he should go before the court and urge it to take some action in the matter.

After reading Mr. Ringo's editorials in the Herald this week, leading to the skies the primary method of selecting Democratic State candidates, one wonders why he did not vote for it at the meeting of the State Central Committee?

UNEXY WOODSON said three years ago that the wealth and intelligence of Kentucky were going to rule the State, and from reading Urey's paper now one concludes the wealth of the Democrats in Kentucky was ruling the Democratic party.

The rugged honesty of President Roosevelt has won for him the confidence, not only of the financiers, but of the great common people of the country, and if the present prosperous business conditions continue until 1904, his election to succeed himself, will not be seriously opposed.

The vote of Mr. Ringo in the State Central Committee meeting against a State primary and his editorial utterances in the Hartford Herald this week commending it, reminds the reader of Moore's sarcastic reference to the American patriots:

Mr. BEN D. RINGO could greatly strengthen popular respect for his political integrity by giving out a signed statement harmonizing his vote in the State Central Committee meeting against the calling of a State primary with his editorial utterances in the Hartford Herald this week in support of it.

The negroes of Ohio county should not forget that when a negro wants to use the court house for a public entertainment, an order of the Fiscal Court forbids it, but when a local company, headed by a Democrat, wants to use this same court house, the Democratic County Judge opens the doors.

The Hartford Herald very graciously assumes to advise certain Republican aspirants for office, to consult the office holders' trust at their headquarters before announcing their candidacy. Will the Herald be generous enough to the aspirants referred to, to name the official or officials in charge of the office holders' trust to whom they may refer their candidacy?

PEOPLE who go to Owensboro over the Illinois Central railroad should take a lunch along and decline to spend a dollar in that city until the authorities lay a decent pavement from the depot to the street car line. We editors, of course, take a cab, but, an otherwise comfortable ride, is spoiled by the spectacle of bankers and other indigent people wading half leg deep in the mud.

RECENTLY when Judge Miller refused the use of the court house to a negro minstrel company for no other reason than that they were negroes, the Hartford Herald trotted out an order of the Fiscal Court requiring the Judge to refuse the use of the court house for public entertainments. At the court house to-night a farce comedy company will give a public entertainment. We will wager a basket of ginger snaps that the Herald does not reproduce the Fiscal Court order referred to, in the next issue.

In the gray and gold of eternity's dawn, the brightest crown will not adorn the head of that Christian who has clung to the mountain's crest and scoffed at the erring souls below, but rather that of the pious soul who would, for the moment, forego the sunshine and the song to lead a strengthening hand to some weak groveller in the valley's twilight.

The people want a primary, and the candidate who opposes it signs by such a position that he is not willing to submit his claims to a fair expression of the voters—Ringo's editorial in the Herald.

Was Mr. Ringo not willing to submit the claims of his candidates to a fair expression of the voters at the polls when he voted against a State primary, or if the people wanted a primary, as he states, why did he vote against it?

The mucky condition of Hartford's streets is a burning disgrace to the town, for which there is no excuse. The rumormongers pay $2,000 a year in lot to the officers of the town and this amount augmented by a very light tax, would give us good streets. Our enterprising business men, who have done so much for Hartford in the past year in the way of new buildings and improvements, should take up the matter of street building at once.

The Herald-Commercial, successor to the Louisville Commercial, made its appearance yesterday. If we are to judge it by its initial number, we are forced to conclude that it will be like its publishers claim for it, a metropolitan paper of the highest rank. For a long time the Republicans of Kentucky have felt the need of a party organ, such as the new paper promises to be and it will no doubt meet with immediate and widespread support. Its special facilities for getting news, will make it easily the foremost paper in Kentucky.

For the third time Thursday the Court of Appeals reversed the decision of the lower court in the Powers case and granted the defendant a new trial. It is to be very much regretted that the court divided on political lines. In former trials growing out of the political revolution of 1900, the Republican judges often divided in opinion, but never once have the Democratic judges failed to act as a unit in support of partisan opinions. Again has Judge Cantrell been justly rebuked for his sordid political rulings in the trials growing out of the Goebel killing. It is to be hoped that Governor Beckham can find a man for special Judge of the Scott Circuit Court, who is not so blinded and steeped in partisanship to at least make a pretense of being decent in the next trial of the unfortunate Powers.

In this week's issue of THE REPUBLICAN will be found the announcement of Mr. Geo. M. Maddox, of Rockport, for the Republican nomination for Representative. Mr. Maddox is well known to the Republicans of the county, having been a member of the county committee for many years. Mr. Maddox's zealous efforts for the cause of Republicanism entitles him to a large share of the credit for the reversal of a Democratic majority in Ohio county. It is nominated Mr. Maddox would be an easy victor in the legislative race next year.

RINGO AND THE PRIMARY.

Mr. Ben D. Ringo is a member of the Democratic State Central Committee, and as such he voted against the calling of a primary election next year to nominate candidates for State offices. Mr. Heber Matthews, editor of the Hartford Herald, editor of the Hartford Herald was sick, and Mr. Ringo wrote the editorials for that paper this week. He says:

"The people in the party who do the voting wanted and demanded a primary. It is not a little strange that Mr. Ringo did not know what his people wanted a week ago, when he, as a member of the State Central Committee, voted against a State primary?"

Again Mr. Ringo says editorially in the Hartford Herald:

"On the contrary, a primary is demanded largely because many Democrats remember that the men who cried out the loudest against a State primary and yell 'stop that,' have more than once aided in so manipulating State conventions as to entirely overthrow the expressed will of the majority."

Does not Mr. Ringo here refer to participants in the Music Hall convention, and did he not, after that convention, go out in the country and swear by all the gods that that convention was the fairest ever held in Kentucky?

Again this same Mr. Ringo, who voted against the calling of a State primary, says editorially in the Herald a week later:

RICH MAN'S PRIMARY.

And What Some Democratic Papers Say of It.

BREAKERS AHEAD.

"Of course Mr. Beckham is eligible." The very chance to say as much will tickle the Republicans nearly to death, for Republicans know that any attempt to run the Beckham juggernaut over the Democracy of the State will cause a ground swell of indignation compared to which the John Young Brown movement was but the gentle heaving of a maiden's breast. If Mr. Beckham is the good citizen we believe him to be, he will lay his ambition upon the altar of his party's best interests and say: "Choose, ye, from the others whom ye will have to rule over you."—Princeton Banner.

WHY NOT?

If Mr. Beckham wants to immortalize himself why don't he call an extra session of the Legislature and have a law passed authorizing the State to pay the expenses of the primary election?—Mayfield Messenger.

The people do not urge anything against Governor Beckham, but the common expression is that they see no reason to take a man of very common capacity and whose eligibility is at least questionable and make him the nominee of the great Democratic party of Kentucky, when there are hundreds of men in the State much better qualified and whose eligibility cannot be questioned. This seems to be a conservative and sensible view of the matter.—Marshall county Democrat.

As for Governor Beckham he, with a salary of $6,500 a year and free house; rent for three years, ten months and twenty-seven days, can also well afford the assessment, especially as he has numerous appointees to assess from $50 to $200 each to make up his share of the expense, but with the man without the cash, it is different. The average candidate may be prepared to spend $
